If you are successful in this position, please describe the ideas, projects and activities you plan to implement for World Archery Europe	In general, my aim is to play an active role on the WAE Executive Board in order to further strengthen and promote archery in Europe. I am very much aware of the important position of a WAE Vice-President and its significance for the positive development of the federation - particularly at a time when Mario Scazella is stepping down, having played an outstanding role as WAE President in the federation's positive development for decades. This makes it all the more important to me to support the new Executive Board led by presidential candidate Hakan Cakiroglu, and I consider myself well-equipped for this new role, having been a member of the World Archery Executive Board for many years and having gained valuable experience in other roles within international sport. In order to further promote archery in Europe, attractive and exciting championships at European level are from my point of view of the utmost importance as a public showcase of our sport at the highest level, particularly with a view to engaging new audiences and raise the sport's profile in the media. To this end, I believe efforts are needed to further enhance the quality of our

	European Championships and ensure they maintain a consistently high standard. Similarly, I consider the inclusion of archery in the programme of the European Youth Olympic Festival to be an important step, both as an incentive for our youngest athletes and as an opportunity to further consolidate archery within the family of Olympic sports. Furthermore, I also see opportunities to further professionalise the federation at management level, improve internal and external communication, and place greater emphasis on service provision for the member federations, in order to provide even stronger support for the national federations in their work and thereby increase general social and public awareness of and acceptance for our sport across Europe. Closer contact with WA – of which I am the First Vice-President – and with the IOC, where I am a member of the Athletes’ Entourage Commission, can also make a significant contribution to this. I am confident that my experiences gained over the last years in many different positions and areas of responsibility within sports on national and international level will help me – in cooperation with all members of the WAE Executive Board and further Committees – to play a part in fulfilling the important functions of this committee. Finally, all our efforts will have the global goal to support archery and to provide archers in Europe and beyond with the best possible conditions for practising their sport.
